Saugus - Shared regarding their various committee. Including opening in the fall and safety. Discussed parent feedback regarding opening in fall for the new school year. The district Has multiple facilities projects at all campuses during distance learning.

Sulphur Springs - Has a board opening due to the resignation Brenda Martinez Gerson, who moved out of the district. The board voted to fill the position by appointment. They are accepting applications for trustee area 3 through Friday, June 12th. A special meeting will be held on Wednesday, June 17th. Discussed their two committees. Discussed plans for opening in fall. The district is presenting on YouTube on June 9th, to the community, the various alternatives being considered for the fall opening.

Hart – In the process of conducting drive through graduations. They are going well. Students are involved in the communities and are involved in the protests, which trustees were encouraged by. The district has formed a committee on how to open in for fall.

College of the Canyons – Classes in the fall will be online. There are four sessions for summer, which will be online. Graduation was Friday, June 5th. 2500 Graduates, their largest class ever. The ages ranged from 81 years old to 17 years old. Chancellor Dianne Van Hook has emergency powers. Looking at large budget cuts. They are finding it tough to anticipate attendance/registration due to the current environment, which is causing uncertainty. Proud of students involved in the protests. For CTE classes, they may have some labs on campus, in larger areas. Invested in software for some classes, so students can carry out lab assignments online. Tough to transition to online because of many requirements and various approvals needed. Distributed lawn signs to help students celebrate graduating. Looking for advocacy to disband Calbright, an online campus, so the money can be redistributed to other colleges.

Newhall - Working on reducing their budget expenditures. Superintendent put together committees to develop models for instruction for next year. Received survey results from parents on opening for next year. Most parents would like to return to normalcy. Board will hear recommendations at the June 9th meeting. Assistant superintendent of human resources and assistant superintendent of business have left the district. Director of fiscal services retired. Moving some special education is moving from Stevenson Ranch to Wiley Canyon.

7. Discussed holding a candidate forum. It was mentioned PTA will be putting out information for the upcoming elections. It will be determined later if a special meeting will be held for a candidate forum.
