My mission is to create a classroom environment where we challenge ourselves and one another. We are willing to take risks, learn from our mistakes, and celebrate our successes.

Amy Sheen
Room 15 Extension 115

My motivation for teaching was written most eloquently by a former student. "Thank you for teaching me. I learned a lot from you. And not just school stuff." My goal is to teach beyond the classroom.

Kimberly Todd
Room 10 Extension 110

My professional mission is to inspire my students to become lifelong learners through example, love, and laughter. I aim to encourage their respect and curiosity in the world around them while they strive to do their best in all aspects of their lives.
